BRYANT BROS., AGENTS
MT. VERNON

BRODHEAD.

Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Carter and children were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. Giles Carter, Harriman, Tenn., from Friday until Monday. Mr. Carter recently moved his family from Tellico Plains, Tenn., where he was cashier of the Tellico Bank and Trust Co., but resigned a few months ago, and has accepted a position as cashier at Harriman at a salary of $2,000.00.—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hutcheson, arrived here Tuesday and are guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Gravelly.—E. S. Albright and Logan Bryant were in town Saturday afternoon. Mr. Bryant, who is agent for the Ford Automobile, was driving his new Ford, and while here he was busy driving over town and had his car well loaded with prospective buyers.—R. H. Hamm, Jacob Elder, A. M. Hiatt and John Robbins attended the Boone Way meeting at Crab Orchard last Friday.—J. M. Cress, the Preachersville stock buyer, was in town last Friday, also the first of the week.—Miss Ella Carson was down from Mt. Vernon from Friday until Monday.—Mrs. R. C. Thompson is quite ill with tuberculosis, and is not expected to live but a short time.—Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Frith have been numbered with the sick for the past few days.—Mrs. J. J. Brock died at her home Sunday afternoon, and her remains were laid to rest in the Copper-Creek burying ground Monday. She had been afflicted with consumption for several months, and her death was no surprise. A few months ago her baby died with the same disease. Besides her husband, she leaves her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kincer, a brother and probably a sister to mourn her loss.—W. A. Johnson sold to J. M. Cress, the first of the week, a pair of work cattle for $180.25.—Prof. J. L. Pilkenton has accepted a position with the Southern Desk Co., of Hickory, N. C., and was calling on the School Boards of Burnside and Danville the first of the week. He will travel most of the time in interest of this company until the next term of Brodhead Graded School.

The base ball game here last Friday between East Bernstadt and the locals resulted in a score of 8 to 7 in favor of the visitors. One of the latest rules of base ball is to allow the Manager, Coach and Owner of the team to umpire the game, and this stunt was pulled off by East Bernstadt team, however the decision was in their favor, and we know they feel proud of it.—Mrs. J. M. Owens, and little daughter, Maggie, were in Lexington from Saturday until Thursday the guests of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Sutton.—Mrs. Mary Albright is having a new coat of paint put on her residence property. Mrs. Albright is getting ready for the great Brodhead fair, and the fair people always expect a place there. She will make extra effort to accommodate a greater number than ever before, and judging from the enquiries we have already for rooms during the fair we are sure no space will be spared that week.—They say times are getting better, but it would be a hard matter to convince Owen Cass that this is correct. Mr. Cass has last no time for the past five years, having been employed as Operator by the L. & N., and Tuesday he received notice that his job had been given to a Mr. Dunsmore, and that he had been placed on the extra list.—Miss Willie Francis, of Mt. Vernon, is with her sister, Mrs. Sylvan Bordes, on account of the serious illness of Mr. and Mrs. Bordes' little daughter.—Miss Mary Proctor was in Mt. Vernon Tuesday between trains, the guest of her brother, S. T. Proctor and family.—Cress Brothers and Allen Hiatt shipped 6000 pounds of wool from here Friday, and will have from 5000 to 8000 pounds to ship in next few days. Mr. Hiatt delivered a car load of hogs to J. M. Cress last week, and will drive a like number to Mr. Cress next week. It seems that the Quail sect on is head quarters for wool and live stock now. Cress and Hiatt also bought from 300 to 500 lambs in that section for June delivery.—Mrs. and Mrs. Allen Hiatt of Quail, were here Wednesday on their way to spend a few days near Mr. Hiatt's old home in the Hiatt section.

F. L. Thompson, the hustling salesman, of Mt. Vernon, was here the first of the week.—T. J. Singleton has purchased of Lee Mullins, his interest in the stock of goods belonging to the firm of Mullins and Quinn. Mrs. James Owens and daughter, of Brodhead, came here between trains, Tuesday, enroute home from Lexington.—T. J. Niceley, of Mt. Vernon, was here Monday telling the boys that he is a candidate.—Bill Davis, of Mt. Vernon, was here Saturday and tells us that he is a candidate for Circuit Clerk.—Mrs. J. W. Mullins and children have returned from Mt. Vernon after a few days' visit with relatives.—The long looked for rain has at last come and we certainly did need it in this locality.—The bond issue that was voted on has become a certainty and now we look forward to the time when work will begin, when our rough county road will be turned into a pike when the automobile will begin to pass through our county.—Rev. Macmillan, of Mt. Vernon, was here Saturday, and we understand did not hold services on account of preaching services at the Christian church, but we learned of a plan whereby there can be an arrangement made, not conflicting with each other.—Little Miss Geneva Griffin has returned home from Mt. Vernon after a week's visit with her brother Claud.—Watch Inspector Franklin and son, Bernard, of Mt. Vernon, were here Wednesday.—Miss May Price, of Pineville, after a few days visit with relatives, has returned home.—Atty. J. W. Brown of Mt. Vernon, was here between trains Wednesday.—J. B. Donally is visiting friends in Knoxville this week.—Mrs. W. H. Burton, of Pineville, is visiting relatives and friends here.—W. H. Krueger was in Mt. Vernon, Monday.—There were 125 in attendance at the Christian Sunday School, last Sunday.—J. T. Omarv was in Louisville latter part of last week.—Dr. R. G. Webb has installed a soda fountain in his drug store.—G. S. Griffin has returned from Cincinnati where he went to purchase goods and from we can hear they will fill the house to its full capacity.—Fred Barker was at Mt. Vernon the latter part of last week with home folks.—Judge G. M. Ballard of Mt. Vernon, was here Tuesday between trains, enroute to Pineville.—O. D. Bryant was called home Monday, to Mt. Vernon, on account of the illness of his mother Mrs. Bryant.—Judge and Mrs. G. M. Ballard of Mt. Vernon, visited the family of G. D. Cook Sunday.—Miss Annie Baker of Mt. Vernon, is visiting relatives here this week.—J. L. Hughes who had a sprained ankle for some few days is able to be out again.—W. G. Rivers who has been sick for some time is slowly improving.—Rev. Baker of Fariston filled his regular appointment at the Christian church Saturday and Sunday.—Isaac Bowman, better known as (Daniel Boone) was here Saturday.—D. B. Rambo is treating his dwelling to a fresh coat of paint.—Walter Rice has returned from Atlanta, Ga., after a few days sojourn in that Southern clime.—The Ice Cream parlor, managed by Misses Ella Mae Blanford and Flora Pennington, is a grand success. They have given them the names of Ted and Tess.—Mr. and Mrs. Claud Griffin of Mt. Vernon, are visiting Mr. Griffin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Griffin at this place.—Sheriff Cam Mullins and little son, of Mt. Vernon, were here Monday.—Engineer Scotty Fallas was with some folks at Lebanon Jct., first of the week.—Dr. Pennington of London, was here Monday to see D. B. Rambo.—Well, we guess we had better ring off as news is scarce this week.

Barbed wire cuts, ragged wounds, collar and harness galls heal up quickly when Ballard's Snow Lintment is applied. It is both healing and antiseptic. Price 25c, 50c and $1. per bottle. Sold by John Robins, Brodhead, Ky.
